

~JD Reardon's~

Featured Selections for October

~Draft Beer~

Leinenkugel Fireside Nut Brown $3.75/pint

Well balanced flavor and brilliant amber tones give this nut brown a comfortable accessibility. English two-row malts give this lager a maple aroma and pronounced chocolate, caramel and hazelnut top notes that dance around the palate to a graceful finish.

~Bottled Beer~

Great Lake's Burning River 12oz. $3.75

Named after the 1969 burning of the Cuyahoga River, Great Lake's American Pale Ale combines a citrusy Cascade hop flavor with a fruity assertiveness. A Gold Medal Winner in the World Beer Championships and brewed in accordance with the Bavarian Purity Law of 1516.

~Special Concoction~

Nuts & Berries $3.75/pint

The light and sweet berry taste of Leinenkugel's Berry Weiss is balanced perfectly with the nuttiness of Leinenkugel's Nut Brown. The perfect concoction to accompany the transition of summer into autumn.

~Red Wine~

Estancia Meritage

$10/glass $40/bottle

Fans of smooth and elegant wines will love this luscious Red Meritage, blended in the style of the great Bordeaux wines of France. Thick, deep and explosive with flavors of chocolate dipped black fruits, enveloped in rich sweet oak with a long, fruit driven finish.